

Outdoor Arts Bursaries - Greenwich & Docklands International Festival 2019

About the Bursaries

Bursaries are available for Wales based artists and arts organisations interested in or working in outdoor arts, to see new work, network, and attend professional sessions at leading outdoor arts event the Greenwich & Docklands International Festival.

This also includes the opportunity to take part in the GDIF Festival Hub, hosted by Outdoor Arts UK, with a packed programme of professional networking and development activities.

The bursaries cover the period from Fri 21 – Sun 23 June, when the Festival launches, and the Hub is active, with Articulture informally hosting successful bursary applicants for the weekend in the heart of Greenwich, London.

The aim of the bursaries is to help create a wider arena of sharing, connections and collaborations for the development of outdoor arts in Wales, as well as to ensure a distinct Welsh presence at this leading international event.

The bursaries are supported by the Arts Council of Wales, Welsh Government and the National Lottery.

About the Greenwich & Docklands International Festival

Greenwich+Docklands International Festival (GDIF) is London's leading festival of free outdoor performing arts (theatre, dance, circus and street arts). Alongside the high profile programme of international and UK acts is a series of outdoor arts industry events.

GDIF Festival Hub hosted by Outdoor Arts UK offers a packed programme of opportunities, inviting artists, festival directors, programmers, funders and all those with a professional interest in Outdoor Arts to develop skills, reflect on the work of the sector, and take advantage of excellent networking opportunities in an informal and friendly atmosphere.

Apply for a Bursary

3 bursaries are available in total. These are to cover your travel. Simple accommodation is provided together with others near the festival for 3 nights (Thurs 20 – Sat 22 June). Festival/Hub registration is free.

Articulture will informally host the group of successful bursary applicants, providing guidance throughout the weekend.

Please note that Articulture cannot support anyone who has already received a bursary for attending a festival from us previously and applicants must be able to attend the full three days.

It's simple to apply - drop us an email to rosie@articulture-wales.co.uk, including –

- Your name and address
- A very short description of your work (supplemented with a CV/website/images as you wish)
- A few sentences about what you hope to 'give' and what you hope to 'gain' with your outdoor arts festival bursary

Deadline to apply: Friday 17 May, 5pm. Contact Rosie on 07966071073 with queries.
